Congratulations to the following members on your success:

Changing the landscape: northern Nevada construction industry devising innovative ways to grow local workforce

Directly from the Northern Nevada Business Monthly, "A new program recently rolled out by the Nevada Chapter of Associated General Contractors could help ease regional demand for skilled heavy equipment operators for northern Nevada construction companies.

The AGC's Construction Access Program provides hands-on training with excavators and loaders through two Caterpillar Simformation heavy equipment simulators. The simulators were purchased through a nearly $200,000 grant by the Governor's Office of Science, Innovation and Technology."
