Welcome New Members

Alignment Metalworks may be a relatively new business name, but its founder,

Jonathan Compton, has been in commercial construction in Reno, NV since 2005.

They perform the full range of decorative metal work including stainless steel cable railings, guardrails and stairs, as well more artistic design build lighting, fountains, fire features and sculptural installations.

Their current 'signature' project is the erection of 11 sculptural shade structures at Victorian Square for the Nugget Events Center.

TheHomeMag has been in business for 20 years, and has been in northern Nevada for over a year now. THM is delivered to 75,000 affluent homeowners every 4 weeks. They have a highly targeted distribution to homes with a valuation of at least $745,000. They have call and QR code tracking, to monitor their advertising partners' results.

If you are looking for quality leads in this target market, contact Shelley Vinson the Reno Account Executive. Having lived in the area for over 45 years, Shelley knows the trends and market better than anyone in the business. She can be reached at shelleyvinson@thehomemag.com.

Black Eagle Consulting, Inc.

Geotechnical & Construction Services

Savannah Reyes Joins Black Eagle Consulting

Savannah Reyes joined the Black Eagle Consulting staff. She is a geologist and will be instrumental in coordinating and conducting field explorations, assisting with report preparation, performing field inspections and some lab work. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Geology from University of Nevada, Reno. Outside the office, Savannah enjoys roller derby, off roading, and camping.

"She is a terrific addition to the team", said Scott Kelly, P.E., Geotechnical Division Manager. "Her experience bolsters the team and gives us more depth. We are excited to have her on board."

Black Eagle Consulting, Inc. provides geotechnical engineering, materials testing, special inspections, and non-destructive testing (NDT) services. The firm has two offices, located in Reno and Carson City, to service Northern Nevada and the Eastern Sierras. Black Eagle Consulting, Inc. is licensed in Nevada, California, Hawaii, Missouri, and Oregon.
