Friday, November 20, 2020

Welcome New Members!

Builders
United

Builders United is a Commercial General Contracting company serving the regional Southwest United States with a focus on development, ground up construction, tenant improvement, renovation and remodeling services for commercial, retail, food and beverage, medical, government, industrial, and hospitality clients.

Colorado TBC is a small, close-held, Mechanical Open-Shop Construction

Company located in Fallon, NV, founded over 36 years ago, we employ an annual average of 50 employees. We began in the petrochemical gas production and oil shale projects industry, and eventually transitioned into the geothermal power generation sector. Since then, we have been working mainly on geothermal projects. Colorado TBC has had a hand in building over 20 Geothermal Projects in 5 States including: Utah, Hawaii, Oregon, California, and Nevada. We have had the opportunity to complete a Hybrid CSP/Geothermal Solar project as well as installation of over 22 miles of Geothermal Gathering systems in the geothermal sector. With our past background of heavy process piping, large-scale mechanical erection projects and varied working knowledge, Colorado TBC is the best choice for mechanical piping and erection in the industrial construction sector.

SR Construction, Inc. (SR) was founded in 1991 as a full-service design-build general contractor with in-house design, preconstruction, and construction services. The company is based in Las Vegas with an office in Reno, servicing markets including healthcare, hospitality, commercial, and industrial.

SR Construction provides creative and adaptive planning, design, and construction solutions that respond to clients' company culture, business, and community. LEAN construction's core principles are incorporated on all projects; the two primary tenants are respect for people, and the elimination of waste. These foundational values create a harmonious and productive atmosphere where safety, productivity, teamwork, and flow are paramount. Notable projects include: Northern Nevada Sierra Medical Center, Centennial Hills Hospital New Patient Tower, Henderson Hospital Emergency Department Expansion project, and the Western Region Central Business Office.
